This is some `simple` text with a font change in the middle of the line.

In this `example` the font size is slightly different from the surrounding text.

Similarly, attributes such as bold and / or italics should not cause line breaks.